

Message from MoneyBrilliant CEO

We are extremely pleased to participate in the national Financial Inclusion Action Plan (FIAP) program and join the growing community of FIAP trailblazers.

The purpose of our business is to help people live better lives by helping them make better decisions about their money.

Our team is passionate about and devoted to making a difference by helping Australians get ahead with their finances and feel confident about their future.

We recognise that people face financial exclusion for many different and complex reasons.

We believe that MoneyBrilliant can play a significant role in helping those people previously excluded from financial services to become financially resilient. We can increase financial inclusion by providing simple, convenient and affordable access to information, advice and tools people need to make better decisions about their money.

As a business, we aim to be a customer advocate, provide value for money, transparency, simplicity and convenience, and give a voice to the millions of Australians who haven't been able to access the financial products and advice they need to get the most from their lives.

I congratulate Good Shepherd Microfinance and their partners EY, the Centre for Social Impact and the Australian Government for developing this valuable initiative. We, with the other FIAP organisations, look forward to playing our part in building financial inclusion across Australia.
